THE COTTAGE CRAFTS

Think pretty, Laura Ashley look-alike traditional French furniture. At The Cottage Crafts, you'll be in stylish country heaven. The store launched its new collection in July, and those looking for a chic and refreshing take on traditional dark wood furniture will love the white-painted French antique reproductions made of durable mahogany wood. You'll find a variety of fine dining sets, dressers, sofas, beds, bedside tables, and display cabinets. Popular items include a six-piece dining set ($3,800), a single door display cabinet ($1,880) and charming Valbonne bedside tables ($580 each). The store also sells an assortment of knick knacks and charming home décor accessories to complement its collection. The Cottage Crafts' core services include interior design and contract services such as carpentry and tiling, and you can also get your French piece custom made to suit your needs.
